

MODULE 1: The Basics

Introduction 2

Human Development and Reproduction

1.A They Tell me I'm Going Through Puberty 5

Handouts:

They Tell me I'm Going Through Puberty 6

Puberty Changes by Gender 7

Key:

Puberty Changes by Gender 8

1.B What's Happening to my Body? 9

Handouts:

What's Happening to my Body? 10

Puberty Changes by Development 12

Key:

Puberty Changes by Development 13

These activities correspond to the following learning objectives from the NWT Health Curriculum:

6.5 The endocrine system regulates and controls a variety of body activities.

Participants will be able to:

6.5.i) Describe the changes in males and females at puberty as they relate to the endocrine system.

Families and Communities

1.C Family and Community Roles and Responsibilities.. 14

Handouts:

Dene Kede: Families 15

What do Inuit Value? 16

Building a Genogram 17

My Family History 18

1.D Rites of Passage 19

Handouts:

Dene Stories 20

The Inuit Way 27

These activities correspond to the following learning objectives from the NWT Health Curriculum:

6.1 As children grow, their responsibilities and relationships within the family change.

6.2 Elders have an important role in families.

Participants will be able to:

6.1.i) Identify their responsibilities within the family.

6.1.ii) Describe how responsibilities change with age.

6.1.iii) Describe how relationships with other family members change with age.

6.2.i) Identify the importance of elders in the family.

Abuse Prevention

1.E Teasing or Bullying..... 30

Handouts:

I Was Just Kidding!	31
Teasing or Bullying	33

1.F Teasing or Bullying Statistics 34

Handouts:

Sexual Harassment and School Safety: How Safe do Students Feel?.....	35
Statistics.....	36

1.G Where on the Line? The Continuum between Sexual Choice and Coercion..... 37

Handout:

Where on the Line? (Case Studies).....	39
----------------------------------------	----

These activities correspond to the following learning objectives from the NWT Health Curriculum:

6.8 No one has the right to sexually abuse (a child).

Participants will be able to:

6.8.i) Describe sexual abuse (including bullying, harassment and sexual harassment).

1.H What is a Value? 41

Handouts:

List of Values.....	43
Dene Laws	44
People Traveling Together.....	45
Inuit Qaujimagatuqangit (IQ).....	46

1.I Values and Issues 47

Handout:

Values and Issues.....	48
------------------------	----

These activities correspond to the following learning objectives from the NWT Health Curriculum:

6.9 No one has the right to sexually abuse a child.

Participants will be able to:

6.8.ii) Identify responsible behaviours which help prevent abuse.

1.J Who Would You Talk To 50

Handout:

Who Would You Talk To?.....	51
-----------------------------	----

These activities correspond to the following learning objectives from the NWT Health Curriculum:

6.9 No one has the right to sexually abuse a child.

Participants will be able to:

6.9.i) Recognize supportive people.
6.9.ii) Identify family and community members who will provide support.